Clive

by Gary Baines and Craig MacErlich

The story of Clive over nearly 200 years is told in this book. It is a historic tale from pre-European times to 2012, with a brief look at what the future may hold.

The accounts of how the earliest pioneer settlers made a commitment to this precious part of Hawke's Bay makes fascinating reading, and with carefully selected illustrations to match the text the reader has a fulsome overview of the progress and evolution of the township.

Hundreds of thousands of people pass through Clive annually and this book is a chance for those who wish to know more to be informed. And for those who live in Clive or have done so at any time it is time to rejoice.

This book is a celebration of Clive.
We can all enjoy it!
